PLANNING KIT

YOUR WILL CHRISTIAN

Dear Friend,

Thank you so much for requesting the Crown Will Planning Kit. We decided to make this resource available, gratis, because:

- Most people (20%-30%) have not prepared a WILL.
- Most Christians do not see their WILL as an opportunity to honor God.
- The careful preparation of your WILL can be a final act of Christian Stewardship... and we want to encourage that.

There are several tools in the packet that should be useful to you:

- Quick Tips to Help Make Your WILL Planning Spiritual and Meaningful
- Facts About WILLS
- A Christian WILL
- Christian Testaments of the Founding Fathers
- How to Help Your Attorney Prepare Your WILL
- Financial/Property Information Form
- WILL Planning Information Form

We sincerely hope this information will provide direction and assistance in preparing a God-honoring last WILL and Testament.

If you have any questions about this material, please contact Jack Gibbs at jgibbs@crowns.org.

May the Lord bless you and keep you.

Warmly in Christ,

Howard Dayton

Quick Tip:

Everyone should have a WILL regardless of the size of his or her estate. If you do not have a valid WILL at the time of your death, the state agency assigned to handle intestate (having no legal WILL) properties will divide them among the surviving heirs as the state law regulates, after extracting probate costs and possible state and federal inheritance taxes. That is not good stewardship of the resources God has entrusted to you.

Crown Financial Ministries recommends that you have an attorney, who practices in your state of residence, prepare your WILL.

A WILL...

1. May serve as a person's final Christian testimony. (See "Writing a Christian WILL.")
2. Only controls property belonging to the person whose WILL it is.
3. Is a legal document that directs how property will be passed to family members, friends and relatives, and charitable organizations after the maker's death.
4. Authorizes payment of debts and expenses owed.
5. DOES NOT control property that goes to others by legal devices such as jointly held property or beneficiaries.
6. May nominate a person to serve as legal guardian to minor children and other persons to whom the deceased person has custodial responsibility.
7. Names an Executor/Executrix or Special Representative who will see that all provisions of the document are carried out.
8. May be amended by a Codicil any time during the maker's life.
9. Is a public document open for anyone to read.
10. Is only effective when the maker is deceased.
11. Cannot provide for the care of its maker.
12. Is valid in all states, but every provision may not be applicable in all states. Thus, if the maker moves to another state, the WILL should be checked by an attorney in the new state to be certain that it meets all state requirements.
13. Does not prevent the courts from controlling assets left to minor children.
14. Needs to be valid and up to date, both from the standpoint of your wishes and state laws, which may change. So, check your WILL every few years.

Quick Tips: Tips to help make your WILL Planning spiritual and meaningful

Following is a step-by-step plan that can assist you in using the tools in this kit to best advantage.

- 1 START WITH PRAYER...that God will guide you and lead you, and that He will reveal His will for your WILL.
- 2 READ "A CHRISTIAN WILL"...This explains how a Christian WILL has spiritual dimensions that the typical "boiler plate" WILL does not have.
- 3 BE INSPIRED BY READING "CHRISTIAN TESTAMENTS OF THE FOUNDING FATHERS"...that God will guide you and lead you, and that He will reveal His will for your WILL.
- 4 HOW TO HELP YOUR ATTORNEY PREPARE YOUR WILL...This is a summary of information you should consider, and your attorney will need, in order to prepare your WILL. It addresses your concerns and desires for how you want your assets distributed when the Lord calls you home. Many of these issues should be discussed with your spouse, or another person, and prayed about before you meet with your attorney. Thinking through these matters will reduce the time and money you will spend with your attorney.
- 5 GATHER AND RECORD PERTINENT INFORMATION ON THE "FINANCIAL/PROPERTY INFORMATION" FORM AND THE "WILL PLANNING INFORMATION" FORM...Taking time to complete these two forms will help you think through and pray about the bequests you will make. We recommend you fill out the Financial/Property Form first. That will give you a better idea of the size and elements of your estate. You may decide that your estate is of a size and complexity that you should seek outside "estate planning" counsel in order to take advantage of tax and charitable benefits that are available. Or you may wish to ask your attorney about establishing a trust.
- 6 As you work through the materials, WRITE DOWN QUESTIONS you wish to ask your attorney.
- 7 At some point, during the process, you probably will want to DISCUSS YOUR DESIRES AND YOUR PLANS WITH YOUR GROWN CHILDREN or other beneficiaries.
- 8 If you are going to make a bequest to a Christian organization, it is helpful to NOTIFY THAT ORGANIZATION of your intention...but not necessarily the amount.
- 9 WHAT ABOUT AN ATTORNEY?...Most attorneys can prepare a WILL. However, if you can find a Christian attorney, it may be to your advantage. Ask your pastor or a close friend to point you to an attorney in your area.
- 10 YOU WILL WANT REVIEW YOUR WILL EVERY TWO OR THREE YEARS...Circumstances change in your life and in the lives of those to whom you have made bequests (marriages, births, deaths, financial gains or losses, personal or spiritual goals).
- 11 AFTER THE WILL IS PREPARED...
 - Leave a copy with your attorney
 - Put one copy in your safety deposit box
 - Put another copy in a safe place in your home where it is accessible
 - You may want to give it to your executor
- 12 IF YOU HAVE QUESTIONS OR NEED ASSISTANCE...Call Jack Gibbs at Crown Financial Ministries, 1 800 346-4484, Ext. 268 or e-mail him at jjgibbs@crowns.org.

The Blessings of A Christian Will - I am in God's Will. Is He in my WILL?

Preparing a WILL is a vital part of being a good steward. The results of a poll taken by Consumer Reports magazine indicated that only 30 percent of Americans have a WILL when they die. For those who do not have a WILL, the state will decide how the assets of a deceased person will be distributed, which may be contrary to what the person desires. Having a WILL avoids many headaches for the decedent's heirs and helps to keep down the cost of probate, because if you die without a WILL the court will charge your estate with additional fees. So, there are great advantages to writing a WILL and Testament.

Where there's a WILL there's a way....

- ...To leave a secure inheritance to those you love
- ...To ensure that there is an orderly way to distribute the resources that God has entrusted to you
- ...To honor God
- ...To continue to provide financial assistance to Christian causes you are passionate about
- ...To store up treasure in heaven
- ...To perform your final act of stewardship

Where do we go first for advice? We all have sought God's wisdom and relied on His guidance in the fulfillment of our earthly responsibilities. Thus, we will want to put the ultimate disposition of the assets that God has entrusted to us under His Divine dominion as well. When we seek God in the preparation of our WILL, He will "enlighten the eyes of our understanding" and provide both spiritual and practical direction.

What is a Christian Will? In a Christian WILL your message to your loved ones may include what it means to you to be a part of God's family. For example, in the first part of the WILL you could write something similar to the following statement:

I, (your name) being aware of the uncertainties of this life, have, with full confidence, placed my trust in the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, and in His sacrificial death, burial and resurrection. By having faith in Him, I know I have eternal life and can look forward to being united with all my family and friends who have trusted in Christ for their salvation. Therefore, I do hereby publish and declare this to be my last Will and Testament.

Since most WILLS are kept, yours will carry a testimony that can be read in all generations to come as a declaration of your faith. The enclosed sheet "The Founders as Christians" contains Christian proclamations made by some of the Founding Fathers in their WILLS.

If you already have a WILL that does not acknowledge God and celebrate your Christian beliefs, you may easily change it, through a codicil, without having to rewrite the entire document. Your Will also is an affirmation to your family of your love and devotion to them. It is a demonstration of your care and concern, because the document will be used by the court to direct what is to be done with your property. Without it, your loved ones could lose what is precious to them.

A Christian WILL also remembers the Lord's work by assuring that a portion of your estate is devoted to assisting Christian causes. To support your church or favorite ministries, a WILL is necessary. By remembering Christian organizations, such as Crown Financial Ministries, you will continue to have a part in sharing the blessings of our Lord. Think of it this way: The portion of your assets that you leave behind in bequests to the church and to Christian organizations and causes is actually sent ahead as a deposit in your eternal heavenly account.

There are two methods you may use to use to accomplish this:

- Specific amount bequest: Use wording such as "I give, devise and bequest (specific amount or percent of assets) (to the church or organization of your choice).
- Rest, residue, and remainder statement: Use wording such as "All the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate, both real and personal, whatever situated, I give, devise, and bequest to (the name of church or ministry of your choice).

When making a bequest to a Christian organization, be sure to have an accurate name, address Federal Tax ID Number recorded in the WILL.

If you wish to make a bequest to Crown Financial Ministries, please include this information in your WILL:

*Crown Financial Ministries
601 Broad Street SE
Gainesville GA 30501
TAX ID # 58-126-0812*

How to Help Your Attorney Prepare Your Will

Quick Tip:

"What do you have and what do you want to do with it?" In essence, that's what an attorney will ask when you go to see him or her about a WILL.

Anticipate that question and you can save time and money. It's better to go to the attorney's office prepared with all of the information in hand. This information should include a written summary of the ultimate objectives you have for your estate distribution. (See "WILL Planning Information" and "Financial/Property Information" forms.)

1. Family Information

 If you are considering a bequest to Crown Financial Ministries and if you have any questions, please contact us at 1-800-534-1000 ext 268.

 You may wish to list gifts bequests of tangible, personal items in a separate memorandum provided it is referenced in the Will.
